ONE WORD SEEMES TO BE TAKING OVER PRESIDENT DONALD TRUMPS ECONOMIC VOCABULARY.

nat trump

BUT LETS START FROM THE BASICS.

MERRIAM WEBSTER DICTIONARY DEFINES TARIFF AS A LIST OF TAXES PLACED BY A GOVERNMENT ON IMPORTED OR IN SOME COUNTRIES EXPORTED
GOODS.

EARLIER THIS WEEK TRUMP ANNOUNCED HE WOULD BE PLACING A 25% TARIFF ON MEXICAN AND CANADIAN GOODS
AND A 10% TARIFF ON CHINESE GOODS.

THIS STARTED BECAUSE OF TRUMPS CONCERN WITH THE FENTANYL CRISIS WHICH HAS CLAIMED HUNDREDS OF
THOUSANDS OF LIVES AS OF 2023 ACCORDING TO THE CENTER FOR CONTROL AND DISEASE PREVENTION.

PRIME MINISTER JUSTIN TRUDEAU OF CANADA AND
PRESIDENT CLAUDIA SHEINBAUM
PARDO OF MEXICO OFFERED GRAVE WARNINGS FOR THEIR COUNTRY AND AMERICANS .

BUT THESE TARIFFS COULD IMPACT SMALL BUSINESSES WHO GET THEIR ITEMS FROM ACROSS THE BORDER.

A UCF STUDENT WHO IS CHOOSING TO GO BY HER BUSINESS ALIAS, RHONDA
FELTON, SAYS HOW THIS WILL IMPACT HER SMALL BUSINESS.

{SOT}

("I do get a lot of things from Canada.
I use eBay a lot, and, if I wasn't able to do that, that would significantly limit, like, how many items I'm able to sell and how much money I'm able to make. I'm really well known within the Monster High community so if all of a sudden I'm not able to do that because I'm not able to source out these items for decent prices, then my customers are not going to be very happy with that.")

AS OF NOW PRESIDENT TRUMP LOOKS FORWARD TO HAVING MORE CONVERSATIONS ABOUT THE TARIFF WAR WITH THE PRESIDENT OF CHINA SHE SHZIN PING.

BUT FOR NOW IT REMAINS A POLITICAL BATTLE.

{SOT}

("JAYNA: if you could describe this tariff war and everything that's happened thus far in one word, what would it be? CLARK: Political. I think that President Trump is doing some things politically that he thinks will work, that will help his base. Canada and Mexico responded politically. China is responding politically. FLORIDA SENATOR RANDY FINE IS PUSHING FORWARD WITH A BILL THAT WOULD BLOCK UNDOCUMENTED STUDENTS FROM ENROLLING IN PUBLIC UNIVERSITIES.

THE PROPOSAL SUPPORTS FINE'S ARGUMENT THAT IT IS NOT FAIR FOR ILLEGAL IMMIGRANTS TO TAKE RESOURCES FROM FLORIDIAN STUDENTS.

SENATE BILL 90 AIMS TO REPEAL A 2014 LAW ALLOWING CERTAIN UNDOCUMENTED STUDENTS TO PAY IN-STATE TUITION...WHICH FINE SAYS GIVES THEM AN UNFAIR ADVANTAGE OVER IN-STATE STUDENTS.

IN JANUARY 2025...FINE INTRODUCED SENATE BILL 244...BARRING UNDOCUMENTED STUDENTS FROM ENROLLING IN FLORIDA'S PUBLIC UNIVERSITIES WITH ACCEPTANCE RATES BELOW 85 PERCENT...INCLUDING UCF.

and it should be the right for everyone to experience, in Australia where I'm from the university is not great.")

HANNS SAYS THAT EVERYONE SHOULD BE GRANTED THE OPPORTUNITY TO EXPERIENCE HIGHER EDUCATION.

{STANDUP}

("There are mixed emotions about whether or not undocumented students should be able to enroll into Florida colleges and/or universities. By letting them enroll, one may ask, 'Is this better for the workforce, or economy?' or 'By giving them a chance to higher education, would this be better for society?")

AUBREY JEWETT, U-C-F PROFESSOR AT THE SCHOOL OF POLITICS, SAYS THIS COULD BE ECONOMICALLY BENEFICIAL...

{SOT}

("The more educated citizens we have the better off for the American economy--it will help it grow it helps for higher paying jobs and, so, I think that's going to be the same whether someone is undocumented or whether they're a legal citizen.")

ACCORDING TO FLORIDA POLICY INSTITUTE, INSTITUTIONS WOULD LOSE MONEY IF THEY FOLLOW THROUGH WITH THE BAN.

U-C-F AND THE CITY OF ORLANDO HAVE COME TOGETHER TO CREATE A BRAND-NEW RESOURCE FOR ASSISTING LOCAL COMMUNITIES AFTER DISASTER.
OUR CO-ANCHOR.... COURTNEY
MCLAIN...WAS ABLE TO BRING US
THE STORY OF THOSE WHO WERE BEHIND THE PROJECT.

ORLANDO HAS A NEW RESOURCE TO ASSIST COMMUNITIES DURING EMERGENCIES.

THE REACH HUB...A MOBILE SOLAR-POWERED UNIT, WAS DEVELOPED THROUGH A PARTNERSHIP BETWEEN MULTIPLE U-C-F COLLEGES, THE CITY OF ORLANDO, AND OTHER ORGANIZATIONS.

DESIGNED TO SUPPORT NEIGHBORHOODS IN NEED AFTER DISASTERS...THE HUB OFFERS ESSENTIAL SERVICES, INCLUDING AIR CONDITIONING, INTERNET ACCESS, CHARGING STATIONS, AND REFRIGERATION.

KELLY STEVENS IS A UCF ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR WHO LED THE FIVE-YEAR PROJECT...SHE SAYS IT WAS FUNDED BY A GRANT.

{SOT}

("I think we first started this discussion about five years ago. We actually applied for the NSF Civic Round One, we were not selected to be funded and then we applied in the second round of Civic, and then we were selected so we were selected I think in 2022.")

{STANDUP}

("Those at UCF and those here in the heart of downtown Orlando know that losing power and internet can have major impacts on a city. And in other parts of Orlando, mobile research hubs will be sent out to keep communities from experiencing detrimental effects.")

WHEN NOT IN USE FOR EMERGENCY RESPONSE, THE UNIT WILL BE STATIONED AROUND THE CITY...FEATURING VIRTUAL REALITY HEADSETS THAT HIGHLIGHT ORLANDO LANDMARKS AS AN EDUCATIONAL TOOL.

MICHAEL HESS IS ORLANDO'S DIRECTOR OF SUSTAINABILITY....HE SAYS THE HUB WILL SERVE THE COMMUNITY YEAR-ROUND.

{SOT}

("Like for people to be able to learn, like, it can't just be some boring trailer, um, so like it has V-R headsets with like games and ya know Daniel's team provides education year-round and they make it a lot of fun for the kids that they work with. ")

THE CITY OF ORLANDO SAYS IT WILL OVERSEE THE DEPLOYMENT AND MAINTENANCE...WHICH U-C-F

WILL CONTINUE ASSISTING WITH
UNTIL THE GRANT PERIOD ENDS IN SEPTEMBER.

("Right now, there are two very conflicting weather stories happening across the United States, and it's all due to this jet stream right over the central portions. It's allowing for record warm temperatures in the southern regions, while portions of the northern regions are seeing below normal and a lot of wintry weather conditions. So states like California and Oregon are seeing the bulk of this weather right now. It will be bringing more wintry weather conditions across places like the Rockies and the upper Great Plains. And then as this system continues to push through, it's going to be making its way all the way to the New England area, affecting places like Buffalo and Boston, bringing with it a lot of snow, while areas like New York are just going to be seeing a wintry mix. And while the northern region is seeing these cold, frigid temperatures, the southern region continues to stay mostly clear and sunny. Back to you. U-C-F MEN'S TENNIS RETURNS FROM THE I-T-A KICK-OFF WITH THE HIGHEST-RANKED WIN IN PROGRAM HISTORY, AND WAS ONE OF FOUR TEAMS THAT PARTICIPATED IN THE TOURNAMENT.

HEAD COACH, LLOYDE BRUCE-BURGESS GIVES US INSIGHT ON THE TEAM'S SUCCESS.

{SOT}

("It was an amazing weekend. Obviously, we never qualified before. The top 14 teams in the country get to go to this event. So it's crazy to have done it. We definitely were not predicted to do it. The Big 12 put us at six in the Big 12 and Arizona at two. So to go there and beat Arizona at their place, and qualify, especially in the fashion game, it was incredible. Credit to the guys and the staff as well.")

REPORTER TRACK

PRESIDENT TRUMP'S EXECUTIVE ORDER SEEKS TO RECOGNIZE ONLY TWO SEXES, MALE AND FEMALE.

IT REQUIRES FEDERAL DOCUMENTS LIKE PASSPORTS, VISAS, AND GLOBAL ENTRY CARDS TO REFLECT BIOLOGICAL'S SEX.

IT PROHIBITS TRANSGENDER INDIVIDUALS FROM USING SINGLE SEX FEDERALLY FUNDED FACILITIES AND RESTRICTS FEDERAL FUNDING FOR GENDER-AFFIRMING CARE, RELATED RESEARCH, AND ORGANIZATIONS PROMOTING GENDER IDEOLOGY. REPORTER TRACK

CAMILA PACHON SILVA, IS AN ATTORNEY,

SHE SAYS THAT INDIVIDUALS WHO CHANGED THEIR DOCUMENTS TO REFLECT THEIR IDENTITY WILL BE AFFECTED BY PRESIDENT TRUMP'S EXECUTIVE ORDER.
